

FLAMINGO ROAD CHURCH LEAD PASTOR IS GETTING NAKED

24 hours a day, for 5 weeks, Pastor Troy Gramling will be exposed in front of cameras, live and un-cut for the world to see

Cooper City, FL. September 1, 2007 - The lead pastor at Flamingo Road Church, Troy Gramling, is getting naked. No, not that kind of naked, it's a nakedness that isn't embarrassing, a nakedness that is unfeigned and unedited.

On September 9 at 9 p.m., Troy will be on a 24-hour web cam for five weeks in four locations: house, car, hotel and office. Every day, all day, we will see his life in a fishbowl - the good, the bad, the great and the ugly.

Why? Well, first, let us tell you why not--it is not to exalt him. Rather, to realize with him, that we are all fish in a bowl. The more transparent we get, the more God can do amazing things through us. We were not created to be people in hiding, concealment, or shame. Instead, we were created to be real, naked and unashamed.

You can watch Troy live on the Web site, mynakedpastor.com, starting with the "9-9 @ 9 PM Launch Party" where the winning videos from the FRC YouTube™ video contest will be featured. The winners will join Troy at his house to help launch the Web site.

So get ready, because Flamingo Road Church is going in a bowl and we hope you'll watch.
